Preserving the History and Traditions of Hempfield

The 1852 Herr Family Homestead is a fine example of a Lancaster County farm property. The original 92-acre property was owned by members of the Herr family since 1844.

The first family member to reside there was Henry Herr, who was a descendent of Hans Herr, one of Lancaster's earliest settlers. Eventually, Amos B. Herr took over farming the property and raising tobacco. Amos and his wife, Emma made major renovations to the house in 1913. They had one child, Amos Rohrer Herr who began managing the property in 1926 upon the death of his father.

When Amos R. Herr's beloved wife Ethel passed away in 1974, he gave a portion of the then 55-acre tract to East Hempfield Township. Amos R. Herr lived at the farm until his death in 1987 when the remaining acreage was formally turned over to East Hempfield Township with the stipulation that the land be used for public good.

The 1852 Herr Family Homestead is open for guided tours every Saturday (1–3:45 p.m.) April–October. Tour duration is one hour; last tour begins no later than 3:15 p.m. Visitors are encouraged to take a self-guided tour of the springhouse and surrounding gardens. Group tours are available by calling (717) 735-2525.

October 2019 marks the 60th anniversary of the Sunquest sundial. Richard Schmoyer, from Landisville, started making sundials at that time. The exhibit is the complete history of Richard Schmoyer and the Sunquest Sundial, created by enthusiast Kenneth R. Clark. Stop in to visit the exhibit today—the last day to see it is Oct. 26th!
